

2026 LAND AND WATER CONSERVATION SUMMIT

March 21, 2026 | 9 am - 3:30 pm | URI Memorial Union

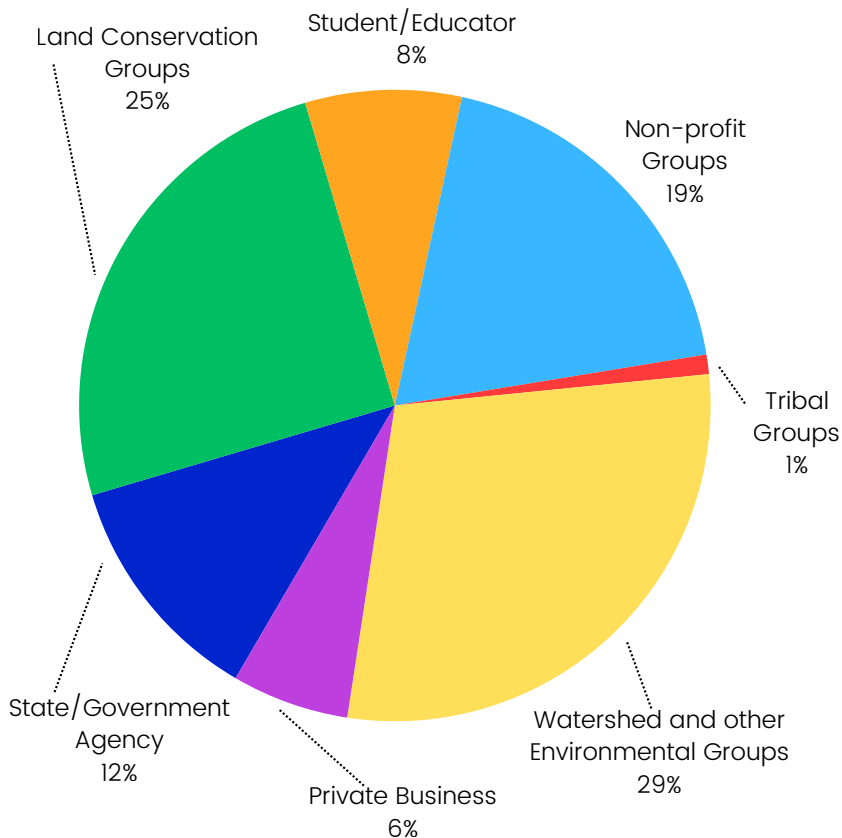

The Work Ahead: Caring for Our Land, Water, and a Just Future

Join us on March 21st for the Land & Water Conservation Summit, Rhode Island's premier gathering for land and watershed professionals, advocates, and supporters. This year, we invite participants to reflect on what it means to love and steward our lands and waters in a changing world, even when it means making difficult choices.

The event will feature a special Keynote Presentation by Ethan Tapper, internationally recognized forester and bestselling author of How to Love a Forest, along with 25+ workshops, sessions, and networking opportunities with participants, vendors, and sponsors.

Audience Profile

- Summit attendees include a diverse group of over 300 individuals representing over 150 organizations!
- 47% of participants are directors, staff or board members - decision makers in charge of contracting and purchasing.
- 93% of participants felt attending the Summit was a good use of their time and will attend again.
