

Make a Lasting Impact on Land Conservation in Rhode Island!

Join the RI Land Trust Council's Board or a Committee!

The Rhode Island Land Trust Council (RILTC), a 501c3 non-profit organization, seeks passionate individuals from diverse perspectives to join our board and board committees. We work to permanently protect land and water by supporting local land trusts and collaborating with partners across the state. We believe in the power of grassroots organizing, strong advocacy, and meaningful partnerships to preserve Rhode Island's important open spaces and natural resources for future generations.

Join Our Board

We are looking for individuals who are committed to advancing our mission by helping to create a more inclusive and equitable conservation movement. Whether you have prior land trust experience or just a deep love for the outdoors, your perspective is valuable to us. As a board member and/or a committee member, you will play a crucial role in guiding our strategic priorities and ensuring that our organization continues to thrive.

What We're Looking For:

- Passion for land, nature, and the outdoors, and ensuring those spaces are available and accessible for all Rhode Islanders.
- Diverse perspectives from all backgrounds to inform our work.
- A commitment to serving as an ambassador for RILTC, contributing your time, expertise, and resources.
- Active participation at meetings.
  - Board members are required to attend 4 meetings per year and serve on at least one committee.
  - Committee members are expected to attend at least 3 committee meetings a year. Committees include Development, Outreach, Excellence, or Governance.
- Participate in the Land & Water Summit (March) and Annual Meeting (June).
- Meaningful personal financial contributions (of any size!) to support our mission and fundraising goals.

Join Our Board

What You Gain:

- Opportunities to network with conservation professionals and like-minded organizations.
- Personal fulfillment through contributing to the conservation and protection of Rhode Island's natural resources.
- Leadership experience and professional development by governing an organization at the forefront of land conservation.
- The chance to help shape the future of land and water protection for Rhode Island's communities.
- Engagement in fun and meaningful programs like Land Trust Days, informative workshops, and the RI Walks Challenge.
- The chance to connect with passionate people and enjoy Rhode Island's beautiful open spaces.

Join us in making a difference! Help us ensure Rhode Island's open spaces and natural places are protected for generations to come.

Join One of Our Committees

Committee members play a vital role in advancing our mission by bringing their unique skills and perspectives to specific areas of focus. Serving on a committee is a great opportunity to get involved with the Rhode Island Land Trust Council, contribute to meaningful conservation work, and make a difference without the full commitment of a board position. Plus, you'll still get to engage in fun and impactful programming like Land Trust Days, workshops, and the RI Walks Challenge!

Committees include:

- Development
- Excellence
- Executive
- Governance & Finance
- Outreach & Land Trust Support
- Policy & Advocacy

Interested in joining a committee? Read the committee descriptions here or contact Kate Sayles at ksayles@rilandtrusts.org to learn more!
